MINEHEAD'S FALLEN

Those Who Died 1939-1945

Research by Ian Davidson
Prepared for publication by Geoff Lloyd

This book is a sequel to the authors' story of the Minehead men who died during the First World War. Here, for the first time, are short biographies of all those from Minehead who died during the Second World War, telling the moving and sometimes harrowing stories of those who paid the ultimate sacrifice. Minehead men served on land and sea and in the air, in theatres of war across the world. Ian Davidson's painstaking research has also revealed the stories of non-combatants who died as a result of enemy action.
